

News from

The Philharmonic of Southern New Jersey

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 1, 2010

CONTACT: Tricia McCunney-Thomas
856-273-6565 / 856-779-2600

Atlantic City Jazz Band Brings Sounds of New Orleans to Moorestown

The Atlantic City Jazz Band will bring the sounds of traditional, timeless New Orleans jazz to Moorestown on Sunday, April 18, 2010, to benefit the Philharmonic of Southern New Jersey.

The concert will begin at 3 p.m. at Moorestown High School, 350 Bridgeboro Road, Moorestown. “The popular Atlantic City Jazz Band is lauded for its mastery of traditional Dixieland and New Orleans jazz and for its artistic improvisation—two equally entertaining elements that make the genre so unique,” said Dick Smith, president of the philharmonic’s board of directors. “It promises to be a truly enjoyable afternoon, bringing the best of the Big Easy to South Jersey.”

Tickets for the benefit are $25, or $20 for seniors and students, and can be ordered by calling 856-779-2600.

The Philharmonic of Southern New Jersey is a 75-piece, all-volunteer orchestra that presents four concerts per season. The season also includes a spring concert featuring classical masterpieces and contemporary standards on May 15, 2010. For additional information, visit www.psnj.org.

Funding for the Philharmonic of Southern New Jersey has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts through a grant to the Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

END